Bring A Soldier All The Way Home.
Your frequent flyer miles can do it!

Our Service men and women are getting R & R leaves, but the military only flies them to Germany or three U.S. Airports, Baltimore/Washington (BWI), Dallas/Fort Worth (DFW), or Atlanta (ATL) for free.

Getting the rest of the way home is their expense – and on such short notice bargain fares are out. A program created by Maryland congressman Dutch Ruppersberger with 12 major airline fixes that.

You can donate frequent flyer miles to the cause. All the details are at this website.

Another way to support them is care packages. What they need and how to do it can be found at this website. <http://www.anysoldier.us>

A Message From the House Committee

Buzz Brady

A new House Committee is being formed and will conduct its first meeting soon. As a committee some realistic goals will be set in hopes of improving Lodge operations to better serve our members. Some goals may only require cosmetic change and others may involve the entire memberships' assistance and approval. This committee will make every effort to keep our members informed on our progress in the monthly bulletin. The following members will serve on the House Committee with additional names forthcoming: Paul Cunningham, Roger Purkey, Ed Schenning, Jerry Livermon, Rich Quaty, George Stinchcomb, Eric Stacharowski. Alternates: Jerry Moxey.

How do you like my NEW look?

Bulletin Format

In an effort to deliver information to you in a cost effective and concise manner, we are changing the format of the monthly bulletin. We are still working with Mary Ellen and you may see changes to the version you are currently reading over the next couple of months. Anyone who wishes to submit an article, committee report or ad for an up-coming event should give it to the ER by the 2nd meeting of the month, either in person or through the mail slot in the Secretary – Treasurer office door.

FIRE FIGHTERS' THANK YOU

Baltimore County Fire Fighters' thank The Essex Elk's Lodge for their assistance and support in running our 3rd annual MDA Bull Roast. On March 13, 2004, the MDA fund raising committee from the Fire Fighter's held a very successful event raising more than $1,500.00 for MDA. Members from fire departments from all over the state attended the event. Everyone who attended was treated to the finest "Bull & Ham" from our "Pit Crew," along with what has come to be known as the finest food ever from the Elk's "Kitchen Crew." This Bull Roast would not have been the success it was without the cooperation and support from the members of Essex Elk's. I would like to thank everyone involved who helped to make the MDA event a success. On behalf of Baltimore County Fire Fighters' Local President Michael K. Day, Sr. President and the entire MDA Committee THANK YOU.

Steve Geller, proud member of the Essex Elk's Lodge.
